Tex is an outstanding athlete. He has had 30 days barrel/pole patterning from a professional trainer. He has been ranched on extensively in the Badlands of North Dakota. He can easily handle 20 mile rides. He has a huge heart. No cuts, scars, lumps or bumps.

Tex is really quiet and has extreme endurance. He is athletic and good on his feet. Because of his quickness, he wouldn't be for an inexperienced rider. He has absolutely no buck.

Tex needs to go to someone that wants to win and take advantage of his athletic ability and speed. He has a great foundation – soft and light. He is ready to go on. 100% sound.

Tex is a 2004 son of Texas High Dasher and out of Jet Me To Texas mare out of Dial Me Salty.

There was a Texas High Dasher at the NFR this year! Go Britany and Rootie!!!
